

10,000-Year-Old Settlement in Wari Bateshwar

Under the direction of Professor Sufi M. Rahman of Jahangirnagar University, the annual excavations are slowly proving what 70 years of surface finds in the community had suggested, that this was a flourishing community from well before the Common Era.

Join Tiger Tours at the 11th season of excavation at Wari Bateshwar, in Narshingdi (near Dhaka) and check out the site of some of the world's oldest coins, and semi precious stones, pottery and metal work from the 1st and 2nd millennia BC.

[More info on the back]

DHAKA DAY OUTS

[Craftspeople of Tangail]

Weavers of finest Jamdani, smiths of fine silverwork, and traditional agricultural practices make for an intriguing day.

[10,000 year old settlement in Wari Bateshwar]

About a 90 minute journey on the Sylhet Highway to this extraordinary site, enclosed by a 5.3Km rampart, and moat, from which surface finds, including some of the world's oldest coins, and semi precious stones, pottery and metal work, have been made for over 70 years.

[Day trip on MV Tanguar Haor]

Take in the waters of the Meghna River to enjoy the riverside industrial and agricultural lifestyles and enjoy many on board activities, and exploring this remarkable innovation in the Tourism of Bangladesh

[Dhamrai Day Out]

En route to the remains of the Dhamrai Palace, built in the 1850s, take in the tours of the Buddhist Vihara in Savar and the Brass Works village where brasswork is still undertaken in the 'vanishing wax' method, developed 4 to 5,000 years ago

[Palaces and Princes at Nawabgonj]

Visit 19th Century mansions and an extraordinary number of buildings from the family of one Hindu Zamindar, as yet unidentified. Enjoy a riverside picnic by the 'Dark Palace.'

[Temples, Rajbaris and Palaces]

Visit the astonishing 'Art Deco' Navaratna Temple at Teota Palace, and the remains of one of the finest Rajbaris. Take in the fascinating tree clad Shiva Temple in Manikganj, and end with a brief stroll on the banks of Ganges/Padma.

Tiger Tours Ltd

#605 Rob Super Market (5th Fl)

Gulshan 2 Circle (Plaza Central bldg)

info@tigertoursbd.com

+880 2 883 4653-4

www.bangladeshunlocked.blogspot.com